Wallace's Farmer published at Des Moines and edited by the present Secretary of Agriculture in President Harding's cabinet, predicts 22 cent price for corn on Iowa, Kansas, and Nebraska farms before Christmas. But this same corn, after the freight is paid from those points to Somerville, would cost more than three times that much. This county can never afford to pay present freight rates on corn, we must raise it and save the freight.

Rumors are being heard of certain combinations between some of the candidates now before the voters of this county for county officers and The Falcon is hoping that the rumors are all false and without foundation. We had hoped that never again would any candidate attempt to thwart the will of the people here by their unfair means, and such candidates as are entering agreements with others as are rumored can rest assured that while they may win a few votes, that can be herded like cattle and driven to the polls they are going to lose as many self-respecting voters who will refuse to be herded. There are rumors of a combination between some of the present officers, and others of some of the present with some of the new aspirants for office. We know nothing definitely of either and hope all the rumors are without foundation, but we repeat them as they come to us each hour of the day, except that we are not ready to publish the names of those reported as being in the agreement, for we have not yet sufficient information. We want to see a Primary in which every voter goes to the polls and votes his own opinion without undue influence of any kind from any source, and this can not be done under trades that "Yop and your friends vote for me and my friends and I will vote for you." And always along with this last agreement the other "We'll put our expense money together to get results."

For Torpid Liver

"Black-Draught is, in my opinion, the best liver medicine on the market," states Mrs. R. H. White, of Keota, Okla. She continues: "I had a pain in my chest after eating—tight, uncomfortable feeling—and this was very disagreeable and brought on headache. I was constipated and knew it was indigestion and inactive liver. I began the use of Black-Draught, night and morning, and it sure is splendid and certainly gives relief."

Thedford's BLACK-DRAUGHT

For over seventy years this purely vegetable preparation has been found beneficial by thousands of persons suffering from effects of a torpid, or slow-acting liver. Indigestion, biliousness, colic, coated tongue, dizziness, constipation, bitter taste, sleeplessness, lack of energy, pain in back, puffiness under the eyes—any or all of these symptoms often indicate that there is something the matter with your liver. You can't be too careful about the medicine you take. Be sure that the name, "Thedford's Black-Draught," is on the package. At all druggists.

Accept Only the Genuine.

Among Somerville's worst needs today is a first class blacksmith shop, one that is dependable and that will do blacksmithing and repairing and let other lines alone. For several years this condition has existed here and it has gradually grown worse until now it is almost impossible to get work done in a shop here at all. The Falcon would like to see a substantial white citizen establish a shop and run it on good business lines, and his business and his income could almost be guaranteed from the very start.

Railroad laborers last week voted not to abide by the decision handed down some time ago by the Railroad Labor Board, a Government organization, by which their wages were cut 12 per cent, while recently they have appealed to that same board to prevent the roads from inaugurating certain changes in working rules, wages, etc. It seems the board is alright with them if it rules their way, but all wrong if it rules against them.

Parent-Teachers Association

The Parent-Teachers Association met at the High School building September 14. This being the first meeting of the school year, the new officers were elected.

Later, the executive board met and appointed the following committees: Membership Committee, Mrs. Carl Norris, Mrs. Blake Stainback, Mrs. M. L. Cozine; House, Mrs. Louis Lipsky; First Aid, Mrs. A. D. Roibsen; Library, Mrs. Tom Moorman, Mrs. Geo. Locke, Mrs. H. C. Moorman; Child Welfare, Mrs. John Haverkamp, Mrs. H. L. Armstrong, Miss Annie Brasfield; Social, Mrs. John Leach; Program, Mr. R. M. Grills, Mrs. E. A. Tucker, Mrs. H. L. Armstrong; Legislative, Capt. H. C. Moorman; Music and Art, Miss Patty Mosby, Miss Bernice Lipsky.

The Association will meet in regular session the first Wednesday of each month. Dues are now fifty cents, and each member is asked to be present at the next meeting and pay up, since one of the requirements for an accredited school is that the local organization shall be affiliated with the national P. T. A., and for this a paid up amount of fifty cents from each member is required.

Ware and wife are to be congratulated for their incessant activity for the advancement of school interests since they have been in the county. With such splendid educational characters and backed up by the financial aid from the white friends and county citizens, Fayette county should soon rank with best in educational advancement.

Something to Think About

The farmers who has corn this fall and foolishly sells it for 20c or 30c per bushel, or the merchant who insists on the farmer paying his debts with cheap corn, may find that he (merchant) will be called upon next spring to supply this same farmer with 75 to 1.00 corn to make a crop. In fact 20c or 25c corn will not pay many debts. The Banker or Merchant who permits such a practice will do his community an injustice. Each county should try to keep their corn within the county. Store the corn; feed all you can to the hogs.

The record shows that the Memphis Trade Territory produces about 1,000,000 bales of cotton and speeds $44,000,000 for corn, $44.00 for every bale of cotton grown. A practice which will eventually bankrupt any country on earth. Then, again, we are led to believe that with low prices for corn and high prices for cotton the farmers will plant even the graveyards with cotton next year, and will have a short corn acreage in 1922, which, if done, would be nothing short of a calamity.

The Merchants and Bankers who are already loaded, should insist on it if not demand, that the corn now in the country be held and proper care taken, in order to meet the probable short corn crop for 1922.

Pay day has arrived, and everyone may insist on collections, regardless of the final outcome. But the merchant who buys corn at 20c or 30c, in order to collect, and with the idea in view of selling back to the farmer next spring at a high price, is using a short-sighted policy and does not take seriously the great responsibility resting upon him. The farmer who gives his corn away is equally as foolish.

Mississippi will consume this year	82,476,000
Arkansas will consume this year	75,324,000
Tennessee will consume this year	88,241,000
Mississippi will produce this year	246,041,000
Arkansas will produce this year	94,183,000
Tennessee will produce this year	51,000
	341,918,000

The above figures will show that the Tri-States will need 4,000,000 bushels more than is produced, based upon Government Statistics.

A Card of Thanks

We wish to extend our thanks, and appreciation, to the good people who so kindly came to us during the recent illness, and death of our dear husband and father.
